BEATS HURST PARK IN A FINE RACE IN THE MUD.

Wotan Also Wins for Charley Dwyer ulamite Captures the $6,000 Criterion Stakes-Four Pavorites and a Second Choice Reward the Patthful.

Africander and Wotan, both owned by Charley Dwyer, won fine races in the mud at iravesend yesterday. Africander, with 126 pounds, met Mattie Corbett's Hurst Park, with 120, in the fifth event, at a mile and a sixteenth, and they put up the most exciting struggle of the afternoon. Ragian, the only other starter, might as well have remained in her stall. Hurst Park was always the favorite at odds on, opening at 4 to 5 and closing at 9 to 10, while Africander remained steady at even money and was heavily backed by hose who do not believe n giving the layers he best of the odds.

Fuller took Africander to the front as soon s the gate went up. Odom ran around Ragian on the lower turn in order to go up to the Star Ruby colt at the beginning of the back stretch. There they raced together neck and neck, first one, then the other, geting his head in front, until they had rounded the far turn and were straightened out for ome. Africander hugged the rail and came away under a hard ride, while Hurst Park. inder the whip, made a bold attempt to get up. But the Dwyer four-year-old was the master and won in a mild drive by a length and a half in 1:50 1-5. Ragian was fifteen engths away.

Wotan carried top weight, 122 pounds, in the handicap for three-year-olds at a mile and seventy yards. He was regarded as about the surest thing of the day, and was sent to the post a 1 to 2 favorite. He simply oyed with the others until he reached the ar turn, where he drew away with ridiculous case and galloped home with twenty lengths to spare in 1:48 3-5. Alforten, played down to was two lengths before Palmbearer, 12 to 1, who beat Garnish, 12 to 1, a head. The stake feature was the Criterion, of 16,000, for two-year-old fillies at five furlongs. J. G. Follansbee's Bellatrix opened at 4 to 5, but went up to 13 to 10 because of a heavy play on W. S. Fanshawe's Schulamite, pounded down from 8 to 5 to evens. Schulanite just galloped home with three lengths over Pierre Lorillard's Chrysalis, the pair running first and second from the start.
W. B. Leeds's Simplicity, 12 to 1, was away poorly, but, though last turning into the stretch, made up enough ground to be third, nose in front of Salt and Pepper. ime was 1:03 1-5. Bellatrix ran far below er previous form.

Newton Bennington's Astarita, 11 to 10 favorite, showed her heels to a big field in the irst race, at about six furlongs, and was an easy winner by two lengths in 1:12. Judge Denton, 20 to 1, was the second horse, five lengths in front of Dapple Gold, 30 to 1, who beat Witchcraft a head. Thistle Heather was kicked at the post and withdrawn. In the steeplechase, at about two miles, Cock Robin and Walter Cleary were equal favorites at 9 to 5. They ran first and second, eight lengths separating them, after the latter had made the pace up to the last quarter of a mile. Captivator, 16 to 5, was eight lengths away. The race was run in

E. R. Thomas's Voladay, 6 to 1, took the last race, for maiden two-year-olds at five furlongs. It was a drive through the stretch, but the big Faraday colt took the measure of Newton Bennington's Gilpin, the favorite, length. Mike Clancy's Tommy Waddell, 6 to 1, was third, three lengths back. The time was 1:03 8-5. Four favorites and a second choice enabled the form players to recover their nerve after the setbacks of Wednesday. The attendance

TO-DAY'S CARD FOR GRAVESEND. Reliable Asked to Carry 148 Pounds the First Race.

Handleapper Vosburg has imposed what looks like an impossible task on Reliable in the first race at Gravesend to-day. He asks the big Watercress colt to pack 147 pounds and beat such sprinters as Shot Gun, Reliance, Fire Eater, King Pepper and Monte Carlo at about three-quarters of a mile. But it is safe to say that if Reliable goes he will once more carry the public's money, as racegoers believe that he can shoulder a ton and win at this distance. Africander, because of his good race against Hurst Park yesterday, of his good race against flurst Park yesterday, undoubtedly will be backed to win the handiscap, at a mile and a quarter, with 127 pounds a his burden. Blandy is asked to give weight to Agile and Martha Gorman in the fifth race, for two-year-olds, at live furlongs, while in the May selling stakes, at about six furlongs, Champlain, John F., Dick Bernard, Witchcraft, Bob Murphy and Seymour look the best. L. V. Bell's fast filly Esterre may be played in the second race, for two-year-olds, at five and a half furlongs, to beat Gold Fleur, First Born, Danseuse and others. St. Gillen and The Cricket may have a chance in the last event. The entries are as follows:

CHICAGO. June 2.—Cloudy weather kept the crowd small at Hawthorne track this afternoon. Glassful gave the talent a fearful thumping in the third race. He opened at 2 to 1, was backed down to 9 to 5, got all the best of the start, but falled to finish in the money. The race furnished a grand finish. On the turn for home Glassful chucked it up. Wainamoinen passed By Ways and led into the stretch. She was on the rail and in the last fity yards Gregor K. passed her. Moharib came on the extreme outside with a magnificent rush, but could not quite get up in time, Gregor K. winning by a nose. Three favorites won.

As Libretto, with Bernhardt on his back, approached the Liverpool opposite the paddock he did not jump over the obstacle, but deliberately ran into it. The gelding sank down out of sight in the ditch on the rear side of the jump and Bernhardt, clinging to the bridle, landed on top of the hedge. The jockey tugged at the bridle and then peered over into the trench, where Libretto was rolling around in helpless style. When the gelding tried to get up, however, and showed his head, Bernhardt let go of the reins, rolled over out of sight, and ran. Several stablemen dragged the gelding out of his predicament while the crowd roared with laughter. Cock Robin, the winner, had not scored a victory before independent of the reins. He was splendidly ridden by J. O' Brien.

E. R. Thomas beamed when his colt Voladay won the last race. The youngster had worked five furlongs with his stable mate Niblick in 1:00 3-5, and the latter only beat him a nose. On the strength of this Mr. Thomas sent a good sized commission into the ring when the odds had reached 6 to 1, and was delighted at the result. It was said that the young turfman had a particularly prosperous day, all things considered, as he was reported to have played Astarita, Wotan, Schulamite and Africander prior to cleaning up with Volsday.

Then blows were exchanged, hats were knocked off, neckties were disarranged, and finally the belligerents were rolling on the face. the belligerents were rolling on the floor surrounded by a mob, when the Pinkertons not only sat upon them but dragged them off to the racetrack lockup. They were allowed to go later on, each vowing vengeance.

will come very near winning the next time he starts. When Tommy Waddell turned into the stretch in the last race those in the grand-stand back of the judge's booth were startled by a terrific yell. It sounded like the roar of an infuriated bull or the explosion of a gas balloon of unusual size. But it was only Mike Clancy trying to root his colt home. The books took in a fortune on Hurst Park.

Several big layers plunged on Africander. Bellatrix was another big winner for the a consistent winner on the Coast, started in the first event and was played by the Westerners, out she was evidently in poor form.

Major Palmer of the Seventh Regiment.

Major Palmer of the Seventh Regiment who is an enthusiast on rifle shooting, said that it seemed to him that a technical violation of the rules had been made, but not with any intention of taking any unfair advantage of the other teams. He said that in discussing the matter with members of the American team he had learned that the British team had special barrels, but before using them they had been inspected by the official of the Government and duly stamped. Who made these barrels he did not know. On this side there is no official stamping of rifles. If there had been the trouble would not have arisen.

YOUNG CORBETT HOME. Crack Denver Fighter Back From Europe -Had a Fine Time Abread.

William Rothwell, known to the followers of the prizering as Young Corbett, arrived from England yesterday on the Deutschland. Corbett was accompanied by Tod Sloan, the jockey. Corbett has been away from America for nearly three months and he says that he got what he sought—a good time, Usually American fighters when they go abroad, especially to England, affect English customs and drop their h's. But the Denver youth is just as American as ever, and all the customs and drop their h's. But the Denver youth is just as American as ever, and all the better, seemingly, for the trip. One thing noticeable yesterday was the fact that Corbett has gained considerable in weight, and looks more like a robust lightweight than a feather-weight, as he wishes some folks to believe.

Corbett was enthusiastic over the trip and said that he enjoyed himself from the time he arrived in England until he sailed for home. He thinks the English sportsmen are royal good fellews.

Young Corbett said that he had not made any plans for the future save that he would leave for the Pacific Coast with his manager, Harvey Pollok, to-morrow, to attend the Jeffries-Munroe mill. Corbett expects to be in the miner's corner on the night of the combat. As to his proposed mill with Jimmy Britt, Corbett said that he was glad that the affair had been arranged and felt sanguine that he would whip Britt when they have it out again.

Tod Sloan will go West with Pollok and Corbett. He expects to do some riding on the Western tracks, and is confident of being reinstated. Sloan appeared to be in condition.

"We haven's played on a fast field this season," asys Secretary Locke of the Pittsburgs. "Rain or heavy grounds all the time."

Woodruff of the Reds made a hair-raising one-handed stop of Gilbert's caloric grounder in the seventh inning yesterday. He came to bat in the next inning and hit for two bases. A big batting deed but rarely follows a star fielding play.

CINCINNATI ERRORS GIVE THE NEW YORKS A GAME.

Good Pitching, Sharp Fielding and Kicking —Gilbert a Star in the Field and Dorlin Bears in the Winning Run—Other National League Contests Postponed.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

NEW YORK (N. L.). 2: CINCINNATI, 1. For seven innings yesterday the Cincinnatis repulsed the New York Nationals at the Polo Grounds. Then they made a bad botch of things, and the New Yorks won the game in the eighth inning. Sharp fielding, fine pitching, intense cagerness on each side to win these were qualities of the game that added zest to it. There also was more kicking than in all the previous games at the Polo Grounds put together. Huggins, Hahn, Bowerman, Bresnahan and McGraw growled and snarled at the umpires, who did first class work, but were too lenient with the kickers. It was an exciting and scrappy passage at arms, the last three innings being played in the rain and the Ohio belligerents slipping just enough after the aqueous inter-ruption to lose the game.

The dashing Devlin lived up to his reputation of getting into the game with a vengeance just when something of the sort was needed. He made a hit which counted in the victory, stole a base which brought out a wild throw, and on the wild throw scored the winning run. As a pinch performer, Devlin is getting to be a past master. Defensively Mathewson's good pitching and the splendid fielding of Gilbert were very helpful. Gilbert made two remarkable stops back of second base that he might not have made on a dryer and faster ground, for the ball would have gone faster; but it was a condition and not a theory that confronted him. and he made the most of it. Corcoran, Wood-ruff, Huggins and Seymour in fielding and Sutthoff in pitching were able acting Redlegs. A line drive from Huggins's hickory was muffed by Browne as a starter, but Mathew-son at once wrapped the next three batters in the coils of his sizzling twisters, and Huggins got no further than first base. No run was imminent thereafter until the fourth inning. Dahlen scratched a hit along the third base line in the second inning, and Gilbert walked, but two were out when these things happened, and Bowerman flied to Seymour. the Bostonese.

BOSTON, June 2.-The New York Stock Exchange team defeated the Boston Stock Exchange nine by a score of 1 to 0 in a hotly contested ball game at the American League grounds this afternoon. By agreement the nines played only seven innings, in which the fielders had little to do owing to the numerous strike-outs. The contest was a pitcher battle between Charlie Paine, the old Har-vard twirler, and Gil Greenway, the former Yale athlete. Paine struck out twelve of the New York men, ten going down before his curves in the last four innings, and Green-way fanned nine of his opponents. Hubbard, the Boston catcher, was unable to hold Paine, one man reaching first on his muff of a third strike and two others being thrown out by him at first base after he had dropped

Bob Wrenn was the man that won the victory for the visitors. In the first inning he cracked out a nice double and stole third, scoring on Foster's fumble of Greenway's grounder. Greenway went to second on the throw to the plate and was called out for cutting third base when he tried to score on Lowell's single. Boston had a chance to score in the second when Paine doubled and went to third on a wild throw by Norris. Philips hit to Runyon and Paine was thrown out at the plate. In the sixth, Hubbard walked and went to third on a wild pitch, he was called out at the plate. There were about 3,500 persons at the game, although the weather was celd and the diamond muddy. A band played between lnnings, and the New York rooters, armed with megaphones, rent the air with "Rah, Rah, Rah, N. Y. S. E. B. C." The score:
